REGULATIONS

To be eligible to log roll, a participant and his/her parent or guardian must completely fill out and properly sign this form attesting that the participant is physically fit for athletic competition and that the parent or guardian consents to such participation. Accident insurance is recommended for all participants in any department sponsored recreation sport program and it is the responsibility of the parent/guardian to provide such insurance.

PARTICIPATION CONTRACT

We hereby verify that the above information is true and correct, and that the above listed child/children is/are physically fit for athletic competition. We understand that any false information will result in the immediate suspension from the Ketchikan Coho's Log Rolling team. The participant agrees to comply with the rules and regulations Ketchikan Coho's Log Rolling Team, the coaches, team coordinators, and the Great Alaskan Lumberjack Show facility and its employees. Participants will be asked to sign a behavioral contract prior to their first lesson.

PARENTAL CONSENT AND WAIVER

I hereby consent to and approve of the above named child participating in the sport of log rolling. I understand the risks associated with participating in this sport and hereby waive, for myself and the above named child, any and all claims, demands and right of action against the Great Alaskan Lumberjack Show, Ketchikan Coho's Log Rolling Team, employees, coaches, and team coordinators for any injury or accident which may occur to the said child as a result of participating in this sport.

REGISTRATION FEES

The 2009 registration fee is $100 for 1 child, $75 for each additional sibling. Fees are used for necessary team expenses, coaching, tournaments & awards, travel, and t-shirts. Team members selected to participate in our new Elite one-on-one training course may have additional fees.
